

Resource Days are the result of increased community interest in providing young people in Redmond greater academic and arts related opportunities.

Since 1992, the City of Redmond's Old Fire House Teen Center has provided Redmond teens with a safe and supervised place to learn, participate and create. The Old Fire House Teen Center continues its strong tradition in creating innovative programming to educate, engage and enrich teens on Mondays & Tuesdays.

Resource Days is an Evolving, Community & Collaboratively Driven Program

ACADEMIC

Covers college preparation, tutoring programs for junior high & high school courses. Includes workshops that increase youths understanding of the world around them.

ARTS

Encompasses photography, theatre, film, drawing, dance, arts and crafts. These activities are geared towards helping teens appreciate, as well as create, art.

TECHNOLOGY

Provides advanced skills necessary to excel in school, college and the workforce.

JOB SKILLS

Prepares young people for entering the workforce successfully by focusing on interview skills, resume writing and job search tips.

ACTIVITIES

Encourages physical exercise, team sports, dance and self defense, focusing on individual fitness.

MUSIC

Covers a range of knowledge levels from beginner instrument lessons to advanced courses; includes recording, sound engineering and composition classes.

AWARENESS

Encourages students to become aware of ideas that enable them to become better citizens.
